BUT WHO CARES?

DID it ever occur to you to rate a great performer by his race, creed, or where his parents came from?

Of course not. You don't care. You judge him on his performance, on his merits. You think of him as an individual—not as a member of some particular group.

Why judge your neighbor or fellow worker any differently? Yet—think a minute—how often do you pin a group label on someone before he has a chance to prove his own personal qualities?

All that any member of any racial or religious group in America asks is the right to be considered on his individual merits. Like him or dislike him as you choose—but do it because he's the kind of a person he is—not because of his race or religion.

There are people in this country who would have us do otherwise—who would breed disunity and trouble by damning whole groups just because they are of a different creed, color, or national origin.

Don't play their game! It's dangerous.

For our own sake—for America's sake, we can all do these three things to help the cause of unity:

1. Accept—or reject—people on their individual worth.
2. Don't listen to, or spread, rumors against a race, or a religion.
3. Speak up, wherever we are, at home, in business, in our school, labor, church, or social groups, against prejudice, for understanding.

Remember—that's being an American.
