

"C" Division

IA 10-2-91

Montreal, Quebec
May 2nd, 1975

THE OFFICER I/C SECURITY SERVICE
MONTREAL

Re: Organization of [redacted] Services
1976 Summer Olympic Games

RESOURCES REQUIRED FROM "C" DIVISION

[redacted] SPECIAL OPERATIONS

Three (3) additional investigators are required

- It is requested that the following two members be seconded to [redacted] Special from 1 May 1976 to 1 September 1976:

Cpl. [redacted]
Cpl. [redacted]

These two members are experienced in this type of work and will require no further training.

- The services of one additional investigator at Corporal or senior Constable level are requested.
- This additional investigator should be seconded to [redacted] for training from 1 January 1976 and his services retained until 1 September 1976.
- All three investigators could be returned to their normal duties on 1 August 1976 depending upon activity level immediately after the Olympics.

.../2

May 2nd, 1975

S
E
C
R
E
T

- The "C" Division reserved investigator group should be trained to operate [REDACTED] equipment.

OPERATIONS

Additional translation resources with specialized language skills will be required.

- An impressive capability is available from among personnel already employed by [REDACTED] Operations.
- Additional capability is available from among other members of the Division.
- We should have financial resources to hire up to 24 translators for up to one month on a casual basis if required, i.e. 2 casual men years at $20,625 (based on $15,000 per year salary plus 25% overtime at 1 1/2 times). Total budget $41,250.

DO
WE HAVE FUNDS
[initials]

SATELLITE TRANSLATION ACCOMMODATION

Should be available outside our restricted area for casual help. A work area for a minimum of 12 people at one time.

R.G. Ball, Insp.
Officer i/c [REDACTED] Operations.

CC: For information of
CIC [REDACTED] OPS - Security Service
HQ - Ottawa